FLORD

In today's progressive workplaces, space is arranged to suit the activities and tasks that take place. Lines of division are removed, and opportunity for staff to seamlessly flow from one work zone to another stimulates creativity and innovation.

Modular sofas are perfect as room dividers so if you have open plan space, they create a way to zone the room creating usable space. Flord is a fully modular sofa range, every piece is made for moulding to your workspace needs.

Flord is a generously proportioned sofa, with individual modular units making re-arranging easy, giving you flexibility in larger workspaces to change layouts keeping things fresh.

Let your imagination run creating multiple arrangements with this versatile modular sofa, perfectly adaptable and designed to enhance any workspace.
